

Student Copyright Assurance

We, the team from Frontier School of Innovation, affirm that all materials used in this website project—including text, images, videos, and other media—were either created by our team or obtained from appropriate sources with proper usage rights.

We have taken the following steps to ensure compliance with copyright laws and ethical standards:

- All external media used in the project has been properly credited.
- We primarily sourced images and videos from Unsplash.com, a site that provides high-quality media under a free-to-use license.
- No copyrighted materials were used without clear permission.
- All media included was verified to be under licenses that allow reuse, such as Creative Commons or public domain.

This project has been a meaningful and collaborative experience for our team. We recognize the importance of respecting intellectual property rights and are committed to maintaining both academic and legal integrity in all of our work.

Student Copyright Checklist

Team Frontier School of Innovation affirms that all content on this website—including text, images, videos, and media—was created by our team or properly sourced. We understand the importance of intellectual property rights and have credited all sources accordingly.

We got the images/pictures and videos from a very good website called:

<https://unsplash.com>

- Properly credited all external sources where required.
- Avoided using any copyrighted material without clear permission.
- Ensured that images from sources like Unsplash are used under appropriate licenses.

It was a very good time working together with my team and we did very well. We understand the importance of respecting intellectual property rights and are committed to maintaining academic and legal integrity throughout our project. Used with proper permission or under a license that allows reuse (such as Creative Commons or public domain).
